

Cyberbullying Quiz

1. An example of “cyberbullying” is:
 - A. Spreading rumors about kids at school using e-mail.
 - B. Constantly instant messaging rude comments to a classmate to make them feel unwanted and not accepted at school.
 - C. Uploading embarrassing pictures of friends at school without their permission.
 - D. All of the above
2. I am completely safe when I’m surfing the Internet because:
 - A. I’m at home with my parents
 - B. I’m in a public place, like school, a library, or community center
 - C. No one knows what I am doing except my parents and my teacher
 - D. None of the above
3. I can report cyberbullying to a teacher, counselor, or another trusted adult at school, even if the harassment is not happening at school.
 - A. True
 - B. False
4. If someone is sending me harassing e-mails at home and tells me to keep the e-mails a secret, I should ignore the threat and tell an adult at home or school immediately.
 - A. True
 - B. False
5. If someone asks to meet you in person over the Internet, you should:
 - A. Tell your parents about this person.
 - B. If after your parents make sure this person is truthful, have your parents make arrangements for you and your friend to meet in a public place.
 - C. Take your parents and other trusted adults with you to meet your friend in person.
 - D. All of the above
6. If a friend you met on the Internet starts sending you gifts, you should:
 - A. Accept the gifts and send a Thank you.
 - B. Keep the gifts and tell no one about the gifts.
 - C. Send the Internet friend a special gift.
 - D. Do not open the box and go immediately to an adult in charge. Explain what happened to the adult.

7. If I receive a nasty, threatening, inappropriate, or sexually suggestive e-mail, I should:
 - A. Write back to the sender immediately, and tell them how angry I am.
 - B. Tell my parents immediately, so they can send a copy to the ISP.
 - C. Tell your friends and have them send mean nasty e-mails to the person.
 - D. Ignore the e-mail and tell no one because you will get into trouble.

8. Before sending an e-mail, which contains hurtful information about a friend at school, I should ask myself “could I get in trouble for sending this e-mail”?
 - A. True
 - B. False

9. You should always tell your parents if someone on the Internet makes you feel uncomfortable in any way?
 - A. True
 - B. False

10. If I get an e-mail with an attachment from someone I don’t know, I should:
 - A. Download the attachment right away
 - B. Forward the attachment to my friends
 - C. Delete it before I open it and tell my parents
 - D. Open it and read it

Riverview Center, Inc. SAP&IS
2600 Dodge Street
Dubuque, Iowa 52001
1-888-557-0310

2/04; 8/04; 09/05